Bringing the Hope of Jesus Behind Bars

By JEFFREY C. PETKEVICIUS • Tangi Times Contributor

Since the start of this year, a dedicated team of volunteer chaplains has been faithfully ministering to the men and women in our Tangipahoa Parish jail facility in Amite. This group is made up of pastors and believers with a deep desire to serve God by going where many won't – behind bars.

Our mission is rooted in compassion and obedience to the call found in Scripture: "I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me." – Matthew 25:36 (NLT)

With no judgment and open hearts, we go twice a month to remind the incarcerated that they are not forgotten – that God still sees them, loves them, and has a purpose for their lives.

One of the most powerful aspects of this ministry is the mutual blessing. As the chaplain's ministers, these humble souls often share this truth: "We're no different than you. We've all sinned, we've all fallen short. Some of us have been where you are and the rest of us just didn't get caught."

That message levels the playing field and opens the door for healing, hope, and honesty. When the gospel of Jesus Christ is shared, you can almost feel the atmosphere shift. You see hardened hearts begin to soften, tears begin to flow, and souls begin to awaken. Still, the work is not easy.

Perhaps the most heartbreaking part of this ministry is knowing that for many, incarceration is part of a painful cycle – one that feels nearly impossible to break. Walking away from it means letting go of everything they've ever known: neighborhoods, lifestyles, relationships, and false definitions of success. The truth is… changing that mindset is a mountain too high for human strength alone.

But God – God can do it. We believe with all our hearts that what's impossible for man is possible with God. The cycle can be broken when Jesus is brought into the fight. Surrendering to Jesus as Lord and Savior is not just a spiritual decision; it's the first real step toward lasting victory and transformation.

That is the message we carry into the Tangipahoa Parish jail. That is the truth we pray will take root and grow in every heart we encounter.

To Sheriff Gerald Sticker: thank you for making room for this ministry and for your commitment to lead with Jesus, front and center. Your heart to serve brings hope to those inside the jail and plants seeds of change for our entire community.

God is at work. Lives are being changed – one heart at a time.

Southeastern Queens Compete for Miss Louisiana

Tangi Times Report

Former Miss Southeastern Shelby Bordelon was first runner-up in the Miss Louisiana pageant that ended Saturday in Monroe.

Bordelon, the 2024 Miss SLU, wearing the crown of Miss Slidell this year, was one of the final two choices eventually won by Gabrelle McLeod, Miss Cane River.

Eva Delatte, the current Miss Southeastern from Ponchatoula, captured three scholarships. She was also recognized for being one of the top fundraisers for the American Heart Association and won $3,000 in scholarships: The Glenda Moss Memorial Passion for Dance Scholarship – an essay-based award open to dancers and the Women in Education Award, given to an outstanding contestant pursuing a career in education. She also won the Sharon Turrentine Healthy Living Scholarship.

Bordelon's finish was the highest by a Southeastern student since Emily Randon (Miss SLU 2015) was first runner-up in 2018.

"Being named the first runner-up to Miss Louisiana left me with a huge feeling of accomplishment. I poured so much time into my preparation process this year, and to know that it was recognized was an amazing feeling. I am still in shock and disbelief. I cannot wait to cheer on Gabrelle through her year as Miss Louisiana," Bordelon said.

A December graduate at SLU majoring in Strategic Communications, Bordelon is now working for Southeastern athletics as the Manager of Service for Corporate Partnerships, while also pursuing her master's degree in Strategic Communication.

As runner-up, she received a $10,000 scholarship that she will use to seek her master's degree at SLU.

Alyssa Larose, a former Miss Southeastern in 2018 and now director of the SLU pageant, said, "I'm

Tangipahoa Chamber to Host Brumley and Stilley

From Tangipahoa Chamber

The Tangipahoa Chamber invites all business leaders to attend a special Tangipahoa Chamber Luncheon on Monday, July 28, featuring Louisiana State Superintendent of Education Dr. Cade Brumley and Tangipahoa Parish Superintendent of Schools, Melissa Stilley.

The event, held at the Southeastern Louisiana University Student Union Grand Ballroom, will highlight the critical connection between education and regional economic growth.

"The Tangipahoa Chamber continues to have education as a top priority and knows the success of our schools directly impacts workforce development and our region's prosperity," said Tangipahoa Chamber President and CEO Melissa Bordelon. "We need our business decision-makers to join us at the table as we stay informed and show our support for education in Tangipahoa Parish."

Attendees will gain valuable insights from both the state and parish levels, with Dr. Brumley and Superintendent Stilley sharing updates on key initiatives, local progress, and priorities shaping the future of education in Tangipahoa and across Louisiana.

"Education is a cornerstone of business development in Tangipahoa Parish," said Tangipahoa Chamber Board Chairman Chance Enmon. "We are honored to welcome Superintendent Brumley and Superintendent Stilley to share the progress being made in our schools – progress that will strengthen our community and pay dividends for generations to come."

As part of the Tangipahoa Chamber's commitment to education, key local educators will be invited to attend. Businesses interested in sponsoring one or more of these Tangipahoa Parish School System employees to join them at their table are encouraged to contact the Tangipahoa Chamber at info@tangipahoachamber.org for more details. Registration is required, and individual seats and tables are now available. The deadline to register is Thursday, July 17. Visit www.tangipahoachamber.org to reserve your spot today!

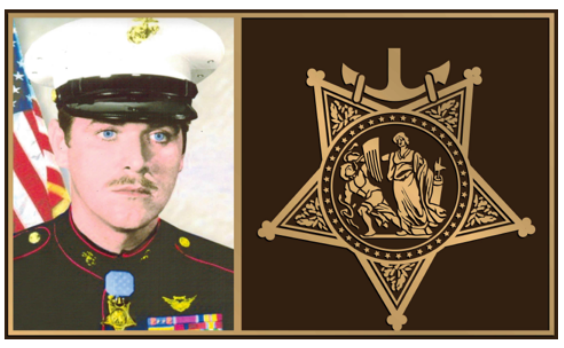
Clausen Ceremony Friday

From Team Tangi

Unveiling Ceremony

Pfc. RAYMOND MICHAEL CLAUSEN, JR

Uniform & Medals



Friday, June 27, 2025
1:30 PM

15485 West Club Deluxe Road
Hammond, LA 70403

Tangipahoa Parish Government will host a special ceremony on Friday, June 27, to unveil a display in memory of Tangipahoa's Medal of Honor recipient, the late Marine Corps Pfc. Raymond Michael Clausen, Jr.

The display, which includes the soldier's uniform and medals, will be unveiled at 1:30 p.m. at the TPG's "Clausen Building," located at 15485 West Club Deluxe Road in Hammond. The ceremony is open to the public.

Clausen, who went by the nickname "Mike," graduated from Hammond High in 1965 and enrolled at Southeastern Louisiana University before feeling the tug to join the Vietnam war effort. He enlisted in 1966 and attended aviation school before being deployed to the war zone where he served as a helicopter mechanic with the Marine Aircraft Group 16 of the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing.

He volunteered for a second tour in 1969, where he served as a helicopter crew chief. Clausen's missions included doing reconnaissance and Medevac flights, and his job was to to make sure all systems were go for each flight and, once in the air, clearing pilots in and out of landing zones and directing Gunnars.

During his second tour, the then-22-year-old Clausen is credited with saving the lives of 18 soldiers who had inadvertently stumbled into a minefield during a firefight with the enemy. While under fire himself, Clausen disobeyed direct orders and departed his aircraft six times to rescue Marines who were trapped in that minefield. He personally carried six Marines out of the minefield, and those who could walk followed him out to safety. According to published accounts, "Only when Clausen was certain that all the Marines were safely aboard the helicopter did he signal to the pilot to head back to base."

In June 1971, Clausen received a Medal of Honor from the President of the United States during a ceremony in Washington, D.C. His accolades include 98 Air Medals from the more than 3,000 hours he flew in combat.

Clausen died in 2004 at the age of 56. He is buried in Ponchatoula Cemetery, and TPG's Hammond complex is named in his honor.

Homeschool Partnership Opportunity at Courtney Christian School

From Courtney Christian School

Courtney Christian School is excited to build connections with Christian homeschool families by offering students from grades six through eleven the opportunity to learn in a Christ-centered environment during their middle and high school years.

Through our Homeschool Partnership (HSP) Program, students may enroll in up to three classes on our campus each semester or annually. Participation is based on class availability, and enrollment is not guaranteed.

Key Information for HSP Students:

- If space permits, HSP students may enroll in one to three academic or elective classes and participate in other programs, such as art, music, and chess
- HSP students must meet CCS admission criteria
- HSP students may play sports for CCS
- HSP students should participate in chapel if their school schedule is during the time of chapel
- HSP students must pass all classes in which they are enrolled
- HSP students will choose the course in which to enroll; however, they will not receive CCS report cards or transcripts reflecting Carnegie Units earned
- Grade updates will be provided to parents for each enrolled class

We welcome the opportunity to partner with homeschool families and support students' academic and spiritual growth. If you are interested in sending your homeschool child to CCS, please contact the following principals:

6th - 7th Grades - Dr. Kayla Lamonte (klamonte@courtneycs.org)

8th - 11th Grades - Dr. Melanie Monistere (mmonistere@courtneycs.org)

Courtney Christian School is committed to excellent education which includes a quality academic program, as well as imparting a Biblical worldview, developing Godly character and instilling the knowledge of our nation's Christian heritage. For more information, visit www.courtneychristianschool.com or call 985-393-0227.

A little bit of everything you need to know

Over the weekend, the Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO) assisted Ponchatoula Police in apprehending a woman accused of shoplifting over $1,200 in tools and equipment during the grand opening of the new Tractor Supply store on I-55 Service Road. Theresa Prine, 35, was issued a summons for Felony Theft after allegedly attempting to flee with a loaded cart of unpaid merchandise. TPSO's Mounted Division, present at the event for security, quickly pursued and detained Prine until Ponchatoula Police arrived. Sheriff Gerald Sticker highlighted the division's crime-fighting capabilities, noting their role goes beyond community engagement to active law enforcement support.

This month, the Florida Parishes Arena proudly added two names to its Wall of Fame. #TeamTangi was honored to help celebrate this year's Wall of Fame recipients, Chuck Ingraffia and Kelly Wells, who were recognized during the Tangipahoa Pro Rodeo & Music Fest. A lifelong Loranger resident, Ingraffia holds two Louisiana High School Rodeo State Championships (1980, 1981) and participated in the National High School Finals rodeo competition before securing his PRCA pro card. He has competed in rodeos throughout the United States and Canada before returning home to become a full-time cattle farmer here in Tangipahoa Parish. Wells is also a lifelong resident of Tangipahoa, who recently retired after a 20-year career as the first director of the Florida Parishes Arena in Amite. Wells is active in several organizations across our community, including the Tangipahoa Parish Fair, the SLU Alumni Association, the Lions Athletic Association, Leadership Tangipahoa, and the Ponchatoula Strawberry Festival Board. We congratulate both of these well-deserving honorees on their selection to the Arena Wall of Fame.

The I-55 Northbound and Southbound right/outside shoulders will have a moving operation from US 51 Overpass (Exit 23) to the Laplace Exit (Exit 1) beginning at 6am through 7pm, daily, on Saturday, June 28, 2025, and Sunday, June 29, 2025, weather permitting, for tree trimming operations. Both lanes will remain open.

The Hammond Police Department is seeking the public's help in locating 25-year-old Mia Magee, a Hammond resident who was last seen on June 24, 2025, on Hillock Court after borrowing a vehicle. Mia is described as approximately 5 feet 2 inches tall and weighing around 185 pounds. Authorities are urging anyone with information about her whereabouts to contact the Hammond Police Department at 985-277-5701. Those who wish to remain anonymous can call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-554-5245 (JAIL). Community assistance is vital in helping to bring Mia home safely.

On June 18, 2025, members of Tangipahoa Volunteers for Family and Community (TVFC) along with their guests attended the club's annual International Day Celebration at the LSU Research Center in Hammond. The event chairwoman was Susan Melancon.

Each year, TVFC members select a country to highlight for the event, and this year they chose England as their featured country. To kick off the activities, Ms. Melancon directed a fun game depicting a trip to the Kentucky Derby.

The Kentucky Derby was inspired by England's famous Epsom Derby, which originated in 1780 and was a favorite event for Queen Elizabeth. Miss Emma Sable, granddaughter to TVFC member, Gwen Domiano, was on hand to serve as Ms. Melancon's lovely assistant during the entertaining game.

As is customary for both Derby races, members and guests all donned their most fashionable hat for the grand affair. The hats also fit right in for the next activity, which was a tea party.

Tea sommelier and owner of The English Tea Room & Eatery in Covington, Jan Lantrip, was the guest speaker for the occasion. Ms. Lantrip quickly got all the members up to speed on the history of English teas, the proper etiquette for teas, and the differences in the varieties of teas.

As part of her presentation, Ms. Lantrip brought along an assortment of tea blends and flavors for the members to sample while she spoke. To aid her in the preparation of the teas, Ms. Lantrip brought along her charming assistant, Dawna Kostrzewa deMoss.

The food for the event was prepared by the members and consisted of such items as soups, finger sandwiches, fruit, cheeses, scones, and a variety of pastries. Everyone who attended the event said they had a delightful time and resoundingly declared the tea party to be a huge success!

Tangipahoa Volunteers for Family and Community is an all-volunteer arm of LSU Agriculture Extension Service. It consists of two chapters: Wednesday Volunteers for Family and Community (WVFC) and Sunshine Ladies. For more information about TVFC local groups, email TVFC president, Gloria Messenger, at ggmesenger1@gmail.com or Membership Chair, Sue Nelson at suenelson41@yahoo.com.

The LSU Ag Center and LSU provide equal opportunities in programs and employment consistent with The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The LSU Ag Center will make reasonable accommodations to enable persons with disabilities to engage in programs offered should you need an ADA accommodation, please contact the LSU Ag Center at 985-748-9381 no later than 2 weeks before your accommodation is needed.

honored to be part of the legacy. We had the joy of watching our fellow Miss Southeastern, Shelby, stand in the final two. She gave a great vocal performance, and I am so proud of her making it to the first runner-up spot."

Larose added, "Eva also did a fantastic job and came away with $3,000 in scholarships."

Delatte said, "I felt that I gave it my all every night. I spoke from my heart in the on-stage interview. I put all my emotions into my dance routine. I was so honored to receive those scholarships. And I now understand why people say that the experience will change your life. This experience will help me with my presentation of how the International Baccalaureate Curriculum works when I speak to the Global Conference in New Orleans in July."

Bordelon and Delatte were two of five Southeastern students competing, including 2023 Miss SLU Kobi Painting, Miranda Sensat, and Samantha Kapoulas.

Campus Corner

By PABLO CREWES
Tangi Times Sportswriter

This edition of Campus Corner sees a spectacular year for Southeastern Louisiana University athletics that featured three Southland Conference championships and a trio of trips to NCAA postseason play comes to an official end on June 30.

As June winds down, SLU named men's and women's athletes of the year, both coming from the diamonds.

On Monday, pitcher Brennan Stuprich of the Lion baseball team and infielder Maria Detillier of the softball squad were honored for spectacular seasons.

Stuprich, who served as the game one starter for the Southland Conference champions, had a 9-5 record with a 2.90 earned run average while striking out 109. The highly decorated senior from Kenner was named the SLC's Pitcher of the Year and gained numerous other awards.

Detillier, a stalwart of the conference tournament championship team, helped lead her team to a school record 50 wins with a .365 batting average. The junior from Gramercy was tabbed First Team All-Conference after collecting 69 hits and scoring 43 runs.

Also on Monday, the Lady Lion soccer team released their schedule for the 2025 campaign. The 18-game slate features eight home games, including three pre-conference tune-ups before starting Southland play in late September.

After a pair of exhibitions in early August, the season starts on the 14th at UL-Monroe, followed by a trip to Troy. The home opener against Southwestern Athletic Conference team Jackson State is slated for the 24th.

After three straight road matches, Southern and Mississippi Valley, also of the SWAC, come to Hammond on September 12 and 14. Southland play starts the next week at Texas-Rio Grande Valley.

The SLC home slate begins on September 25. Conference foes Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Nicholls, East Texas A&M, and Houston Christian all visit Hammond.

The Lady Lions make other road trips to Northwestern State, Lamar, Incarnate Word, and McNeese. The season ends with the Southland Conference Tournament in Beaumont, TX, starting on November 4.

Three Arrested in Grandmother's Shooting Death

From TPSO

The Tangipahoa Parish Sheriff's Office (TPSO) has arrested a Tickfaw man and two others in connection with the shooting death of his grandmother over the weekend.

Jaiden Dillon, 19, has been booked on one count of 2nd Degree Murder, Failure to Report a Felony and Obstruction of Justice in the death of 65-year-old Annette Jackson.

Nijah Dillon, 25, and Benjamin White, 30, have each been booked on one count of Accessory After the Fact.

Around 8:45pm Saturday night, June 21, a shooting was reported at a home in the 14000 block of Pine Road in the Tickfaw area. Deputies arrived to find Jackson outside of her home suffering from a gunshot wound to the neck. She was transported to an area hospital but did not survive.

During the investigation, detectives learned Dillon, who lived at the home with Jackson, his grandmother, shot her through the closed, locked front door as she was returning to the home from the grocery store. Dillon then fled the scene without alerting anyone about the incident or trying to get Jackson any medical help.

Following a warrant issued for his arrest, Dillon turned himself in on Sunday afternoon. In the following days, Nijah Dillon, Jaiden's sister, and her boyfriend, Benjamin White, were also arrested for helping Dillon evade arrest.

This investigation is still ongoing, and Sheriff Gerald Sticker asks anyone with information about this incident to contact our Criminal Investigations Division at 985-902-2088.

If you'd prefer to share information anonymously, you can do so through Crime Stoppers of Tangipahoa's tip line at 1-800-554-5245 or visit www.tangicrimestoppers.com and click on the P3 Tips icon or Submit A Tip! Tips submitted directly to Crimestoppers may be eligible for a cash reward.
